MARYLAND COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

2008 MARYLAND WOMEN'S HALL OF FAME

Nomination Criteria

The mission of the Maryland Women's Hall of Fame is to honor in perpetuity those women who, through their work and lives, have made significant improvement in the lives of women, and for all citizens of Maryland. The Maryland Women's Hall of Fame will be housed in the planned Maryland Women's Heritage Center and currently honorees are recognized in the Maryland Law Library located in Annapolis.

Nominees may be contemporary (living) or historical (deceased), and will be selected by merit, not endorsement.

Nominees must have been born in Maryland or lived a significant portion of their lives in Maryland or currently live in Maryland.

Nominees must have made significant and lasting contributions to the economic, political, cultural and social life of this state.

The nominee's contribution may be in a particular discipline (arts, athletics, business, education, government, the humanities, philanthropy and science) or of benefit to the people of the State of Maryland in general.

The nominee's contribution must extend beyond the community level, be above and beyond the call of duty in her particular field and of enduring value.

Current members of the Maryland General Assembly and Maryland Commission for Women are ineligible for nomination.
